

(a) exact along the axes, wrong off them: the mismatch is angular

(b) the reason: the flux's squares sit on the half-offset lattice

(c) the identity: nine squares stack exactly onto the flux symbol

(d) the price: nine structures, hence 16-component spinors

