

(a) the angles matter because the two curves touch at three angles

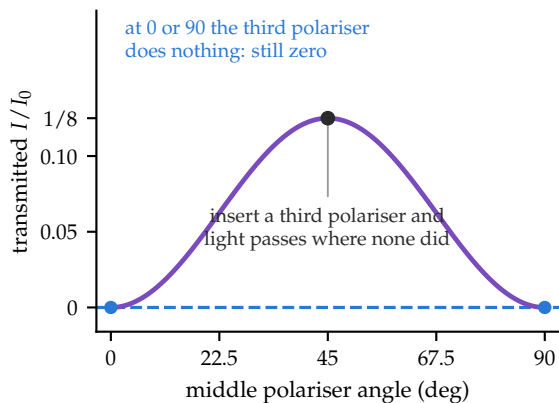

(b) no context is anomalous; the bound constrains only the combination

(c) one beam, one pass, no record:
the angle dependence is physical at 0 or 90 the third polariser does nothing: still zero

(d) S exists only after compiling four disjoint sub-ensembles

